www.johnstonhouse.org

At the Historic James Johnston House
110 Higgins Purisima Road, Half Moon Bay, CA

GENERAL INFORMATION: The Johnston Holiday House committee invites you to submit an application for participation in our 8th annual Holiday House boutique. Proceeds from this event go to the ongoing maintenance and interior restoration of this eastern saltbox house, which is virtually one-of-a-kind in California. Once complete, the Foundation hopes to provide an interactive educational experience for local students.

ELIGIBILITY: Participation is open to painters, leather workers, ceramists, sculptors, potters, textile workers, metal workers, etc., and any and all other recognized craftspeople whose work is original.

SELECTION PROCESS: All artists' entries to be juried before acceptance. To apply, please complete and submit the following information.

- Completed application (below)
- One page describing your work. Please include price ranges of your items and information on where your products have been seen, displayed and sold.
- Representative photos of each item type, non returnable.

If accepted, you will be invoiced a $50 entry fee. In addition, a 20% commission fee will be charged on items sold. Only the types of items specified on your application will be displayed.

DISPLAY AND SALES INFO: Each artist will deliver sales items the weeks prior to the event for display and sale inside the decorated house. Artists do not sell their own crafts, but are welcome to volunteer as docents. Details of delivery, pickup and payment upon acceptance. Every effort is made to safeguard your goods. However, we cannot be responsible for broken or lost merchandise.

PUBLICITY: The Holiday House will be publicized throughout the Bay Area in a wide variety of media. Admission tickets, $10 each, will be sold at designated Coastside locations or via mail prior to the event, or at the door during the event.
